DIRECTORS' REPORT ON THE STATE OF THE CORPORATION'S AFFAIRS

For the Period Ended June 30, 2023

Amot Investments Ltd.'s Board of Directors is pleased to submit the financial statements of the Company and its consolidated companies (hereafter – the "Company") for the six months period ended June 30, 2023 (hereafter – the "Reported Period").

Description of the Company and its business environment

Amot Investments is a public company which is engaged, both directly and indirectly through corporations under its control, in renting out, management and maintenance of income-generating real estate in Israel as well as in the development of real estate for renting out purposes. The Company's share is included in the Tel Aviv 35 Index and in the Tel Aviv – Real Estate Index and EPRA indices. The Company is a subsidiary of Alony Hetz Properties and Investments Ltd. (which holds 54% of the Company's share capital).

BUSINESS ENVIRONMENT(1)

The following is an update regarding the principal developments which have occurred in the business environment from the date of publication of the company's quarterly report of March 31, 2023 and up to the date of publication hereof:

Near the end of Q2 2023 there have been indications of a moderation in the rise of the Consumer Price Index (the "Index"), which rose by a rate of 2.5% in the period of the report, after the Index published for June 2023 remained unchanged.

According to the Bank of Israel's updated macroeconomic forecast of July 2023[1], GDP is expected to grow by a rate of 3% in each of the years 2023 and 2024. The inflation rate is expected to be 3% in the next four quarters ending in Q2 2024 and 2.4% in all of 2024. The monetary interest is expected to be 4.75% – 5% in Q2 2024. The forecast assumes that the dispute around the legislation for enacting changes to the judiciary (the "Legislative Changes") will be settled in a manner which will have no impact on economic activity.

The company has loans and bonds linked to the Consumer Price Index and bearing annual interest (also linked to the Index). Therefore, the increased Index in the period of the report led to an increase in the company's financing costs. Conversely, the company's performing real estate, which, as of the date of the report, is estimated at approximately NIS 17 billion, is being let under Index-linked tenancy agreements and, economically speaking, the company considers this to be a long-term inflation protection. As a result, the increased Index led to an increase of the company's revenues from the letting of properties.

The Construction Input Index for commerce and offices rose by a rate of approximately 1.4% in H1 2023. The increased Construction Input Index leads to increased construction costs in the company's entrepreneurial projects, seeing as the company's agreements with executing contractors are linked to this index.

The Legislative Changes being advanced by the government are causing extensive disputes and criticisms and have led to widespread public protest and to a multitude of assessments that they could adversely affect economic activity and the strength of Israel's economy. While the government had suspended the reform for some time, it renewed the legislative proceedings at the end of Q2 2023 without having obtained broad consensus and despite the escalating social protest. At this point there is no certainty as to whether, and how, the process will be renewed in the coming months, particularly in light of the petitions filed with the Supreme Court for the legislation's revocation, which are scheduled to be heard by an expanded panel of judges in September 2023.

As a result, and following the rating reports published by international rating companies Moody's and S&P in April and May 2023 and the lowering of Israel's rating outlook by Moody's, in late July 2023 these companies published additional and exceptional reports wherein they once again warn of the controversial Legislative Changes' implications on the stability of Israel's economy.

On August 2, 2023, the Bank of Israel published a financial stability report for H1 2023, wherein it defined Israel's financial system as stable, but pinpointed two factors which particularly affected the financial system in recent months: First, the continued interest rate hike and the slowdown in growth both in Israel and worldwide; and second, the uncertainty surrounding the Legislative Changes' implications on the economy's functioning and on the financial system as a whole. The bank warns that, should these processes escalate, they could pose a challenge to the system in the medium term.

The business environment and the uncertainty existing in the market as described above has impacts on Israel's performing real estate industry in which the company operates. Since the start of 2023, there has been a noticeable slowdown in demands and a prolongation of the negotiations stage for the closing of agreements.

Seeing as the company's management views Israeli performing real estate companies as a reflection of Israel's economy, if the estimates described above or part thereof were to materialize, this could be detrimental to the company's own economic performance.

The company's estimates regarding the potential impacts of the above factors on the company's activity, as set forth in this section above, constitute Prospective Information as defined in Section 32A of the Securities Law, 5728-1968 and are based, inter alia, on estimates made by the company based on data collected and analyzed by the company, and on market data and research published, with respect to future events not under the company's control, whose actual materialization or occurrence may materially differ from the company's above estimates, due to, inter alia, decisions made by the government and other regulatory entities, macroeconomic entities and the risk factors characteristic of the company's activity as listed in Section 3.18 of Chapter A of the Company's 2022 periodic report.

NOI Net Operating Income

Set forth below is data regarding the Company's NOI in Israel (income from renting out and operation of properties, net of depreciation and amortization):

In the opinion of Company's management, NOI is one of the most important parameters in the valuation of income-generating real estate, since dividing this data by the generally acceptable cap rate in the geographic area in which the property is located constitutes one of the indications for determining the value of the property (in addition to other indications such as the market value of similar properties in that area, sale prices per built square meter, which are derived from transactions entered into recently, etc.).

In addition, NOI is used to measure the free and available cash flow for the service of financial debt undertaken for the purpose of funding the purchase of the property, after offsetting from the NOI the investments in improvements and maintaining the existing condition of the property (Capex). It is hereby emphasized that the NOI:

A. Does not present cash flows from current operations in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

B. Does not reflect cash held by the Company to finance all its cash flows, including its ability to distribute funds.

C. Is not supposed to be considered as a replacement for net income for purposes of

FFO Funds From Operations

FFO is a metric commonly used in the USA, Canada and Europe to provide additional information on the results of the operations of income-generating real estate companies. This metric provides a proper basis for comparison between income-generating real estate companies and it is not required in accordance with accounting principles. FFO reflects net reported income, net of income (or losses) from sale of properties, plus depreciation and amortization (in respect of real estate) and net of deferred taxes and expenses not involving cash flows.

The Company believes that analysts, investors and shareholders may obtain information providing added value from the measurement of the Company's results of operations on an FFO basis. FFO data is used, among other things, by analysts in order to assess the rate of dividend distribution out of results of operations on an FFO basis of real estate companies. It should be emphasized that the FFO:

A. Does not present cash flows from current operations in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.
B. Does not reflect cash held by the Company and its ability to distribute it.
C. Is not supposed to replace reported net income for purposes of evaluating the Company's results of operations.

Real FFO is a measure calculated according to the company management's approach.

APPENDIX C
DISCLOSURE PROVISIONS IN CONNECTION WITH THE CORPORATION'S FINANCIAL REPORTING

Amot Investments Ltd. is a leading Israeli real estate company.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES

When drawing up its financial statements, Company's management is required to use estimates or assessments as to transactions or matters, the final impact of which on the financial statements cannot be accurately determined at the time of preparation thereof. The main basis for determining the value of such estimates are the assumptions which Company's management decides to adopt, taking into account the circumstances which are the subject matter of the estimate and the best information available to the Company when preparing the financial statements.

By nature, since those estimates and assessments are a result of the Company's exercising judgment in an environment of uncertainty (sometimes highly significant uncertainty), any changes in the underlying assumptions as a result of changes that are not necessarily under management's control, may trigger changes in the value of the estimate and as a consequence impact the financial position of the Company and its results of operations. Therefore, despite the fact that those estimates or assessments are used to the best of management's judgment, the final impact of transactions or matters that require estimates can only be clarified when those transactions or matters are concluded. In some cases, the final results of the estimate may be very significantly different from the amount set to that estimate when it was used.

Set forth below are accounting estimates made by the Company in the preparation of the consolidated financial statements, which may have a very significant impact on the Company's financial position and results of operations.

Amot Atrium Tower, Ramat Gan

Changes in the fair value of income-generating real estate

The Company determines the fair value of income-generating real estate assets in accordance with the provisions of IAS 40 and IFRS 13. When determining the fair value in the annual financial statements, Company's management relies on appraisals of independent and external appraisers. In its semi-annual financial statements, the Company relies on external appraisers' review of all of Company's assets. Quarterly changes (in the first and third quarters) are mainly appraised by an internal appraiser and by Company's management and during those quarters, the income-generating real estate assets are revalued only if there is a material change in the fair value of any of the Company's assets, or when there are indications for general changes in trends in the income-generating real estate sector.

When determining the fair value, the Company used, among other things, the discount rates used to discount the future cash flows, the rental period, the financial stability of the lessees, the scope of unoccupied spaces in the property, the terms of the rental agreements, the time it will take to rent out the buildings once they are vacated, the scope of vacant properties and the vacancy period thereof, the adjustment of the rent in over-rented properties or in under-rented properties, implications of investments required to develop and/or retain the existing condition of the properties and deduction of uncovered operating costs in cases where the properties are run by management companies with a deficit.

Changes in assumptions used by the above-mentioned external experts, in combination with changes in management's estimates, which are based on its past experience, may trigger changes in the amount of fair value carried to the statement of profit or loss, thereby impacting the Company's financial position and results of operations. Pursuant to IFRS 13 and to Accounting Enforcement Resolution 18-1 of the Securities Authority, the Company carried transaction costs incurred upon acquiring new properties to the statement of profit or loss.

Amot Investments* Ltd.

Introduction

We have reviewed the accompanying financial information of Amot Investments* Ltd. the Company and subsidiaries (hereafter- "the Company") which includes the condensed consolidated statement of financial position as of June 30, 2023, and the related condensed consolidated statements of profit or loss and other comprehensive income, changes in equity and cash flows for the periods of six and three months ended on that date. The board of directors and management are responsible for the preparation and presentation of this interim financial information in accordance with IAS 34 "Interim Financial Reporting" and they are also responsible for the preparation of this interim financial information in accordance with Chapter D of Securities Regulations (Periodic and Immediate Reports) - 1970. Our responsibility is to express a conclusion on this interim financial information based on our review.

We did not review the interim condensed financial information of companies that were consolidated, whose assets included in consolidation constitute approximately 23% of total consolidated assets as of June 30, 2023, and whose revenues included in consolidation constitute approximately 30%, respectively, of total consolidated revenues for the periods of six and three months ended on that date. Furthermore, we did not review the interim condensed financial information of certain affiliates presented on the equity method basis, the investment in which amounted to approximately 228,802 thousand NIS as of June 30, 2023, and the share of the results of which for the periods of six and three months ended on that date, amounted to approximately 4,103 thousand NIS and 2,143 thousand NIS. The interim condensed financial information of those companies was reviewed by other auditors, whose review reports have been furnished to us, and our conclusion, insofar as it relates to the financial information included for those companies, is based on the review reports of the other auditors.

Scope of Review

We conducted our review in accordance with Review Standard (Israel) 2410 of the Institute of Certified Public Accountants in Israel "Review of Interim Financial Information Performed by the Independent Auditor of the Entity". A review of interim financial information consists of making inquiries, primarily of persons responsible for financial and accounting matters, and applying analytical and other review procedures. A review is substantially less in scope than an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards in Israel and consequently does not enable us to obtain assurance that we would become aware of all significant matters that might be identified in an audit. Accordingly, we do not express an audit opinion.

Conclusion

Based on our review and the review reports of other auditors, nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that the abovementioned financial information is not prepared, in all material respects, in accordance with IAS 34.

In addition to the statements in the previous paragraph, based on our review and the review reports of other auditors, nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that the abovementioned financial information does not comply, in all material respects, with the disclosure requirements of Chapter D of the Securities Regulations (Periodic and Immediate Reports) - 1970.

The accompanying notes to the condensed consolidated interim financial statements are an integral part thereof.

Note 1 - General

These condensed consolidated financial statements were prepared as of June 30, 2023 and for six and three months period then ended (hereinafter: the "Consolidated Interim Financial Statements"). These financial statements should be reviewed in the context of the Company's annual financial statements as of December 31, 2022, and for the year then ended, as well as the accompanying notes (hereinafter: the "Consolidated Annual Financial Statements").

Note 2 - Significant Accounting Policies

A. The interim financial statements have been drawn up pursuant to generally accepted accounting principles for the drawing up of interim financial statements as laid down in International Financial Reporting Standard IAS 34, Interim Period Financial Reporting and pursuant to Chapter 4 of the Securities Regulations (Periodic and Immediate Reports), 5730 - 1970.

In preparing these Interim Financial Statements the Group has implemented accounting policy, rules of presentation and calculation methods identical to those implemented in the preparation of its Financial Statements for December 31 2022 and the year ending that date, with the exception of the advance implementation of the amendments to International Accounting Standard IAS 1 "Presentation of Financial Statements" (on the classification of liabilities as current or non-current) as follows:

In 2020, a revision was published to IAS 1 on the classification of classify liabilities as current or non-current (hereinafter – "the 2020 Amendment"). The Amendment clarified that classification of the liabilities as current or non-current is based on the rights the entity has as of the end of the reported period and is not impacted by the entity's expectation to realize these rights.
The Amendment removed reference to the existence of an "unconditional" right to defer the remittance of a liability for a period of at least 12 months after the reported period and made clear that if the right in question to defer settlement is conditional on the fulfillment of financial covenants, the right exists if the entity is fulfilling the covenants which were determined as of the end of the reporting period, even if the evaluation regarding the fulfillment of the covenants was made by the lender to a later date.
In addition, within the framework to the amendment, a definition was added to the term "remittance" in order to clarify that remittance can be the transfer of cash, goods and services or capital instruments of the entity itself to the other party. In this context, it has been made clear that if, according to the terms of the commitment, the opposite party has an option to demand remittance with the entity's capital instruments, this condition does not impact the classification of the commitment as current or as non-current if the option is classified as a separate capital component in accordance with IAS 32 "Financial Instruments: Presentation."
The Amendment only influences the classification of liabilities as current or non-current in the Balance Sheet and not the sum or the timing of the recognition of ese liabilities or related revenues and expenses.

In October 2022 an additional revision was published on the classification of liabilities with financial covenants (hereinafter: “the 2022 Amendment”), which clarifies that only financial covenants that the entity is required to uphold at the end of the reported period or during it, influence the entity's right to demand that a liability be remitted for at least 12 months after the reported period, even if compliance with them is tested in practice after the reported period. On the other hand, financial covenants an entity is required to uphold to a date later than the end of the reported period do not influence the existence of the right in question as of the end of the reported period.
In addition, the 2022 Amendment states if the entity’s right to defer the remittance of the liability for at least 12 months after the reported period is subject to the entity upholding financial covenants within 12 months after the reported period, the entity must provide disclosure that will allow the users of the Financial Statements to understand the risk involved.
The other revisions published within the framework of the 2020 Amendment have remained in force.

The start date for the 2020 Amendment and the 2022 Amendment was set for yearly reporting periods starting January 1 2024 or subsequently. The Group has decided to implement the revisions via early implementation starting from its June 30 2023 Interim Financial Statements. The early implementation of the revisions will have no impact on the Group's Consolidated Interim Financial Statements.

B. Determining the fair value of investment real estate and investment real estate under construction in interim reports:

The Group determines the fair value of revenue producing real estate in accordance with the provisions of International Standard Nos. IFRS 40 and 13. In determining the fair value in the annual financial statements, the Company's management relies upon independent evaluations by independent external assessors. In the semi-annual reports, the Company relies upon professional external assessors who conduct an overview of all the Company’s properties. In the first and third quarters, the Company’s management team relies upon no change letters from external assessors and in these quarters, the revenue producing real estate is reassessed only if there is a significant change.

C. Exchange Rates and Linkage Base:

- Foreign currency reserves, or those linked to such, are included in the financial statements according to the representative exchange rates published by the Bank of Israel and were valid until the end of the reporting period.

- Reserves linked to the Consumer Price Index are presented in accordance with the last known index at the end of the reporting period (the Index of the month preceding the month of the date of the financial statement) or in accordance with the index for the last month of the reporting period (the Index of the month of the date of the financial statement), in accordance with the terms of the transaction.

Dear Sir/Madam,

Re: Auditor's special report for review the separate interim financial information pursuant to Regulation 38-D of the Securities Regulations (Periodic and Immediate Reports), 1970

Introduction

We have reviewed the separate interim financial information that was prepared in accordance with regulation 38-D of the Securities Regulations (Periodic and Immediate reports), 1970 of Amot Investments Ltd. ("the Company") as of June 30, 2023 and for the six and three months period then ended. The board of directors and management are responsible for the preparation and presentation of this separate interim financial information in accordance with regulation 38-D of the Securities Regulations (Periodic and Immediate reports), 1970. Our responsibility is to express a conclusion on this separate interim financial information based on our review.

We did not review the separate interim financial information included in the financial information of associates, that the investment in them is amounted to approximately NIS 2,207,072 thousands as of June 30, 2023 and the share of the company in their results for the periods of six and three months ended on that date, is amounted to approximately 68,313 thousands NIS and 29,832 thousands NIS ,The financial information of those companies was reviewed by other auditors whose review reports have been furnished to us and our conclusion, insofar as it relates to the financial information for those companies, is based on the review reports of the other auditors.

Scope of Review

We conducted our review in accordance with Review Standard (Israel) 2410 of the Institute of Certified Public Accountants in Israel "Review of Interim Financial Information Performed by the Independent Auditor of the Entity". A review of separate interim financial information consists of making inquiries, primarily with personnel responsible for financial and accounting matters, and of applying analytical and other review procedures. A review is substantially less than the scope of an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards in Israel and consequently does not enable us to obtain assurance that we would become aware of all significant matters that might be identified in an audit. Accordingly, we do not express an audit opinion.

Conclusion

Based on our review and the review reports of other auditors, nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that the abovementioned separate interim financial information is not prepared, in all material respects, in accordance with the requirements of regulation 38-D of the Securities Regulations (Periodic and Immediate reports), 1970.
